

A Network Theatre Company production

at Network Theatre, Lower Road

Outward Bound: 22-25 September 2010

by Sutton Vane / directed by Robin Lansman

Performances: 22/09/2010 - 25/09/2010

Reading: 22/06/2010 19:00

Audition: 06/07/2010 19:00

Audition: 08/07/2010 19:00

Passengers on a fog-shrouded ship learn that they are lost souls on the way to heaven or hell. A surrealist play full of tension and hidden truths.

Ann and Henry, a young English couple, are facing an impossible love affair. They board an ocean liner in a dense foggy twilight zone, where the passengers from all walks of life are unaware of their "Final" destinations. "Half-way" persons who have committed suicide; others held in a floating purgatory. The truth is slowly unravelled and the individual's destiny then decided.

By arrangement with Samuel French.

Supported by Elizabeth Shaw - official supplier of after dinner mints

Cast:

Tom Prior - mid-30s, male, well presented

Henry - 20s-30s, male

Mrs. Midget - 40s to 60s, female

Thompson, the Examiner - 50s male

Ann - 20s-30, female

Scrubby - 20s, male
Mr. Lingley - 40s-50s, male
Rev. William Duke - 40s-50s, male
Mrs. Cliveden-Banks - 50s-60s

More information:

- A3 Poster (high res PDF)
- Flyer (JPG)
- Image (JPG)
- October 2010 Newsletter review