

Who we are

Our amateur company was originally founded as the Southern Railway Dramatic Society (SRDS) in 1939. 70 years later we are still going strong and celebrating our 70th anniversary with special events and productions.

Our theatre is leased from Spacia, part of Network Rail - we thank them for their continued support.

What we do

We produce a wide range of theatre from classic plays to new writing, from comedy to drama, mixed media and musicals.

Recent Network Theatre Company productions have also been seen at the Edinburgh Fringe, The Rosemary Branch in Islington, the Prague Fringe Festival and Riverside Studios in Hammersmith.

We also organise regular social events, workshops and play readings, so it's a great way of meeting new friends and keeping in touch with old ones.

Want to get involved?

Members and non-members alike are welcome to read or audition for a part. You will however need to be a member to participate in a production.

We receive no grants or subsidies.

Our survival depends on sales income and membership subscriptions, so to become a member, you will have to pay a small annual fee - just £25.

We don't just want performers - we also welcome directors, backstage team (e.g. costume, props, lighting, sound, stage crew) and people willing to help out front of house with the box office and bar.

We are a friendly and relaxed group and don't believe in holding nerve-wracking auditions in order for you to join.

We hope to see you at Network Theatre soon

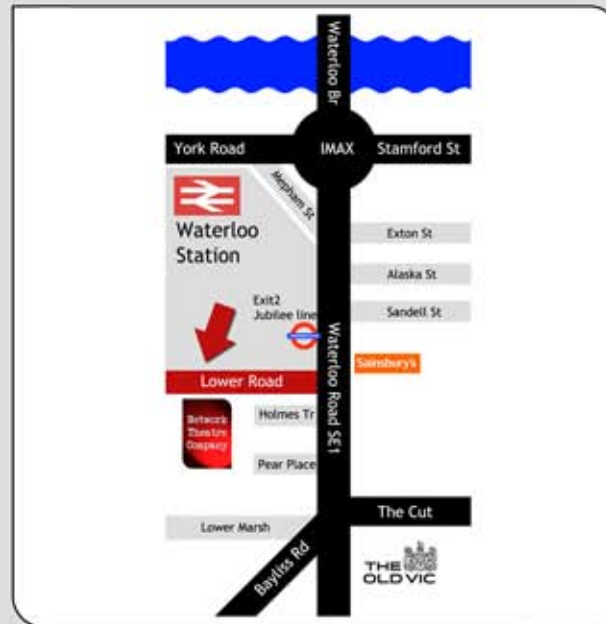

Network Theatre is a rare gem, an amateur theatre in Central London, the home of the Network Theatre Company. It is a private members club licensed for entertainment. Non-members must register as guests.

Our licensed bar opens before and after the show, and in the interval.

Remember Me

An anthology

Two children, a haunting chorus of time, walk us through the corridors of history.

Along the way weaving together classic and contemporary texts that remember the every man, the unsung heroes and victims of war.

A fusion piece involving movement, film, projection and music.

The stories that go untold.

The stories of every day suffering of the people behind the face of war.

Reading: 02 July 2009 - 6:30pm

Auditions: 15 & 16 July 2009 - 6:30pm

Performances: 23 to 26 Sept 2009 - 7:30pm

Happy Chuffing Christmas

By Kirsty Eyre

Athena Warburton, Goddess of Barnsley, prides herself on her bacon butties. Sophia Ferrari, Siren of Siena, prefers Prosciutto. Never the two shall meet - until Darton High School exchange matches their daughters.

Will Adele (old enough to have a tattoo) and the glamorous Letizia (young enough to model) bond or battle?

Packed with spirit, this is one Christmas you'll never forget.

Reading: 02 Sept 2009 - 6:30pm

Auditions: 10 & 11 Sept 2009 - 6:30pm

Performances: 01 to 05 Dec 2009 - 7:30pm

Fred & Madge

By Joe Orton

Fred pushes boulders uphill. Madge sieves water into a bathtub. Fred and Madge are ordinary. A middle-aged couple with monotonous lives and Sisyphean jobs.

Bored of each other, they would love a little more excitement... That is exactly what they will get.

Joe Orton's absurdist drama is a sharp social critique loaded with sexual innuendo and elements of the fantastic.

Reading: 19 Nov 2009 - 6:30pm

Auditions: 09 & 10 Dec 2009 - 6:30pm

Performances: 03 to 06 March 2010 - 7:30pm
