Dear Sir/ Madam,

The Birmingham Shakespeare Library collects material relating to the production of Shakespeare's plays. This includes programmes, photographs, posters and playbills. Scholars and students researching Shakespeare and performing arts find the collection very useful.

We would greatly appreciate if you would send any available material from your recent production of HUMBLE BOY by Charlotte Jones (adaptation on HAMLET) 11-14 JUNE 2008 to add to the collection (two copies of each if possible). I am sure you will look at this request as a promotional opportunity for your company too.

Thanking you in anticipation.

Yours faithfully

Dear Lucy,

Thanks for your request re. our recent production of Humble Boy. I apologise for the delay in replying but I've been away.

As an amateur group working on a low budget we don't generally create much hardcopy material, relying mainly on electronic media published on our website at www.networktheatre.org. However we do have a company flyer, poster, programme and review of the production.

I have attached electronic documents as PDF, and will put hardcopy material in the post shortly.

Best regards,

David Harvey
